Annual Report of the Committee of Management, 1958

To the Members of the Richmond Football Club,
Ladies and Gentlemen,

It is with mixed feelings that your Committee of Management presents the Seventy-Fourth Annual Report and Balance Sheet for your consideration and appraisal. Naturally we are all disappointed at the failure of our Senior team after a very promising opening in the early matches. On the other hand we are elated that an intensive campaign of district recruiting has produced many potential League players who have already indicated their future possibilities by winning the Third Eighteen Premiership for the first time in the history of the Club.

Under the guidance of Coach, Alan McDonald, it was assumed that Richmond would be strong contenders for the 1958 flag. Apart from the retirement of Des Rowe, the 1957 team was virtually intact and with the experience gained in that year, it was felt that the Tigers would fill a position in the Final Four for the first time since 1947 when the redoubtable "Captain Blood" lead them on the Melbourne Cricket Ground in the first semi-final.

However, injuries to key position players and the inexperience of the replacements ultimately played havoc with our prospects and ended hopes of appearing in the Final Series. Despite these disappointments, there was one outstanding and heartening feature that redeemed our failures. It was the development and "blooding" of young players like Fred Swift, Larry Rowe, Pat Guinane, Doug. Clarke, Ian Gardner, etc. These players could confidently be expected to form the nucleus of a subsequent premiership team.

In the opening game the Tigers met stern opposition from the Night Premiers, South Melbourne, but emerged victorious after a bright, entertaining game. Flashes of team work gave evidence that our side had already absorbed the training and coaching of Alan McDonald. Maintaining its improvement, Richmond convincingly defeated Footscray and St. Kilda and supporters were justified in their belief that the Yellow and Black colours would again be flaunted in the Final Games. But, Dame Fortune, ever fickle, struck hard and injuries to Roy Wright, Bob Dummett, Brian Davie and Mick Williams upset the equilibrium of a winning combination. All of these players were functioning particularly well in their respective positions and the subsequent replacing of the team was not an adequate substitution and we could not cope with unbeaten Fitzroy who decisively defeated Richmond in the fourth game.

The tide of misfortune was temporarily halted by victory against Geelong, but victory was costly as Bob Dummett was forced to leave the field with a knee injury. Subsequently, the injury was diagnosed as a pinched cartilage and the medium of an operation later in the season. It removed a vital cog in a forward division that had functioned excellently to that date. Bob, fit and well, was the guiding influence in its success. Our replacements lacked the vital experience to counter balance the loss. In addition, our Brownlow Medallist, Roy Wright, found difficulty in reaching his match winning form following a leg injury and an absence of three weeks. These major handicaps, coupled with other injuries, were too heavy to surmount and our hopes slumped with four successive defeats by Essendon, Melbourne, North Melbourne and Carlton. As three of these defeats occurred in the time-off period, it is obvious that a fit and complete Richmond team could have maintained its place in the Four.

Two further victories against Hawthorn and South Melbourne further emphasised the fact that the Tigers could not be discarded as a football force. Although our team could win only one of the remaining five matches, it showed flashes of brilliance but failed generally through lack of experience. Young players brought into the team acquitted themselves well and particularly against Collingwood and Essendon in the concluding matches indicated that they had learned fast and would be much better equipped footballers in 1959.

Without being unduly optimistic your Committee feels that the present team, with the influx of local players from the Third Eighteen and several stars from the country, will bring the Tigers to the Final Four next season.

OUR VICE-REGAL MEMBERS

It is with a great deal of pleasure that we record the fact that His Excellency, Sir Dallas Brooks has now occupied the position of Number One Member of our Club for a period of ten years. We feel extremely honoured that he has maintained his interest despite our lack of success. It is similar loyal support of a Club through its many vicissitudes that ultimately ensures its emergence from the doldrums and an assumption of premier position.

The extension of the term of office of Sir Dallas as Governor of Victoria met with unanimous approval from all Victorians and particularly at Tigerland where it definitely endorsed the foresight of our Parliament in ensuring the continuance of the association of His Excellency with his Tiger cohorts.

The repeated references to Sir Dallas as Number One Tiger led to Lady Brooks acclaiming herself as Number One Tigress at the final night of the Highlights of '58. We feel honoured at Lady Brooks' designation and gratefully enthrone her in that position.

During the year, His Excellency and Lady Brooks were our honoured guests at some of our matches and we trust that they may again spare some time from their many duties in honouring us with their presence next season.

OUR PATRON

After eighteen years as President and a lifetime in the service of the Richmond Football Club, Harry Dyke retired from office. True to tradition, Harry was loath to sever his connection with the Club in the capacity of President until a suitable replacement could be found. Furthermore, the Club could not afford the loss of his services. The happy solution was provided by the institution of the office of Patron. Harry was installed in that position in March of this year. As a consequence we have retained the benefit of his experience and advice without imposing upon him the onerous duties connected with the Presidency of the Club.

Incidentally, the office of Patron may be held by only one person at a time and may be awarded only in the case of outstanding meritorious service to the Club. It followed as a matter of course that the person best qualified to occupy that position was Harry Dyke and your Committee feels very happy at having the opportunity of expressing its appreciation by electing him as Patron. We feel that we are endorsing the opinion of all members when we say to Harry, "Many thanks for all that you have achieved for the Tigers in the past, many thanks for the numerous services you have rendered the Club, and many thanks for your helpful co-operation and advice at all times. May you be long spared to continue with Richmond in your new office of Patron."

OUR PRESIDENT

As Secretary of the Club for fifteen years, Maurie Fleming established a record as "the doyen of League secretaries." That record was not established without meticulous attention to detail, great organising ability and superlative administrative capacity. It was indeed opportune that, on the retirement of Harry Dyke, Maurie was available as President. Without hesitation, your Committee asked him to take the Presidential chair and, in face of their unanimous desire, Maurie accepted the honour. Never did so few echo the sentiments of so many in making this selection. From near and far, numerous congratulations were extended to our Club—a sure indication that his popularity and efficiency were fully recognised in spheres outside Tigerland.

As President, Maurie has fully exemplified the reasons why he is held in such high esteem. His administration is characterised by impartiality, fairness and an unswerving loyalty to the Yellow and Black. He is helpful and co-operative on all occasions and never spares himself in his efforts to further the progress of the Tigers. He is a guiding influence that cannot fail in the welding of Richmond into a sound, efficient and capable administrative unit. From the wealth of his experience, Maurie is ever willing to proffer advice and individual members of the Committee are always willing to accept his judgment.

We are intensely proud of the good name of the Richmond Football Club and, in our President, we can think of no better person for the furtherance of that tradition. Gifted with the attributes of a gentleman and the calm deliberation of a leader, we feel sure that Maurie must achieve his ultimate ambition in the football world as President of a Tiger Premiership team.

CLUB MEMBERSHIP FOR 1958

Many thanks to all loyal supporters who rallied to our appeal for increased membership during last season. An increase in adult membership of 694 to bring the total to 4,355, and in junior membership of 124 to bring the total to 867, has demonstrated, without doubt, that there are many people behind the Yellow and Black in its re-building programme. That programme is rapidly approaching peak and we can confidently expect that supporters will be amply repaid for their loyalty during the past ten lean years. Loyal members can show their confidence in that prediction by again purchasing membership tickets in 1959 and by inducing wavering supporters to do likewise. Remember that these sales are the life blood of a football club and your help in this direction will materially assist the progress of the Tigers.

As in past years the Ticket Secretary, Bill Quinn, was faced with the problem of securing sufficient helpers in the sale of tickets. Assistance in this direction would be greatly appreciated. We tender our sincere thanks to Percy Langdon, Charlie Phipps, Gary Hender and Con Manley for their help and co-operation throughout the season and also take this opportunity of expressing appreciation to those business supporters who acted as ticket agents in the city, Richmond and surrounding districts.

For his usual efficiency in the sale and distribution of tickets we thank Bill Quinn very sincerely.

HONORARY TREASURER

In his ninth year as Treasurer, Bill Quinn has again shown his efficiency in handling the finances of the Club. At any stage in the year the Committee can always ascertain from Bill a statement of financial affairs supported by well kept books, dockets and receipts. In dealing with the financial policy of the Club it is necessary that a true and correct summary is available whenever required. Consequently it is of paramount importance that the Treasurer must maintain his accounts in a methodical manner. Naturally this entails more than just a casual approach and occupies a great amount of time. We are fortunate that Bill, as well as being efficient, can devote the greater part of his time to the financial machinery of the Richmond Football Club.

Certainly the office of Treasurer in a League club is no sinecure and we owe a debt of gratitude to Bill for his integrity, proficiency and accuracy in maintaining a true and correct record of Club finances—accept our sincere thanks, Bill.

DELEGATES TO THE VICTORIAN FOOTBALL LEAGUE

Harry Dyke (Patron) and Bill Quinn (Treasurer) were re-elected as your Delegates to the Victorian Football League. With their administrative ability our representatives have worthily upheld the prestige of our Club by their impartial approach to matters of policy affecting our national game. In addition they have ensured that the interests of Tigerland have been adequately protected on all occasions.

To the uninitiated it might appear that representation at the League table entails attendance at a few isolated meetings during the season. Nothing is further from the truth. Attendances at regular fortnightly meetings are required and, in addition, the work of various sub-committees requires the presence of delegates at an average of two other meetings in the fortnight. Consequently, the item of time is an important factor and necessarily calls for great personal sacrifice by our delegates.

Our grateful thanks are given to Harry and Bill for their efforts on our behalf. On the few occasions that our delegates could not attend we were capably represented by proxy-delegates in Charlie Priestley, Bill Pitt or Bill Tymms.

CLUB EXECUTIVE AND FINANCE COMMITTEE

With the retirements of Harry Dyke and Hec. Lingwood-Smith, it was necessary to appoint new members to these important committees of the Club. This year the responsibility was entrusted to Messrs. Ray Dunn (Chairman), Martin Bolger, Ron Garraway, Maurie Fleming, Bill Quinn and Bill Tymms. In addition the services of Charlie Priestley as Chairman of the Selection Committee were made available to the Executive Committee.

The function of these two committees is the close examination of all matters dealing with the finances of our Club as well as exhaustive enquiries into all questions concerning Club policy and administration. Decisions are formulated only after careful consideration and constructive criticism. They are then submitted to the General Committee of Management for ratification or rejection as determined by the meeting.

The careful blending of business experience and practical football knowledge on your Executive Committee ensures that all phases of Club administration are efficiently covered. Evidence of careful handling of Club finances may be gleaned from a perusal of the Annual Balance Sheet which indicates the continuance of a credit balance despite an expenditure involving £20,000.

SELECTION COMMITTEE

Messrs. Charlie Priestley (Chairman), Basil McCormack and Jack Titus were again elected to this Committee and together with Alan McDonald (Coach) and Roy Wright (Captain) were responsible for the unenviable tasks devolving on that Committee. Early in the season Basil McCormack submitted his resignation because of business commitments and Des Rowe was elected in his place. Ron Branton (Vice-Captain) acted as proxy selector when required.

When it is considered that these members of the Selection Committee have played over one thousand games of League football, it is superfluous to state that they are admirably equipped from a practical point of view in guiding the Club in matters appertaining the selection of the team.

Early in the season the Tigers shaped in accordance with the policy and plans formulated by this Committee. Emphasis was placed upon team work and results certainly indicated that their assessment of requirements was correct. Unfortunately injuries to key position players upset team balance and the replacements did not have the necessary immediate experience to cope with the situation. Nevertheless the Selectors persevered with their ideas of team building and the encouragement of young players. Subsequently, this policy paid dividends. This was evidenced late in the season when the Tigers were again functioning as a football unit.

The system of free discussion and interchange of ideas between the four Coaches, Alan McDonald, Dick Harris, Bill Wilson and Alan Watson, was vastly beneficial to the smooth running of all Eighteens. The Selectors were provided with extensive reports which, at all times, gave them a definite picture of the potentialities of all players in the Club.

To all members of the Selection Committee and their various helpers, we offer our thanks and appreciation for the fulfilment of a job well done.

VICE-PRESIDENTS AND COMMITTEE

Several changes were effected in the composition of the General Committee throughout the year. The appointment of Harry Dyke as Patron and of Maurie Fleming as President, and the resignation of Max Oppy, left vacancies for Vice-Presidents to which Ron Garraway and Des Rowe were elected by your Committee. Their places as Committeemen were filled by Geoff Spring and Al Boord. As constituted, the Vice-Presidents are now Martin Bolger, Ray Dunn, Jack Dyer, Ron Garraway, Bill Pitt and Des Rowe, whilst the Committeemen are Al Boord, Charlie Callander, Basil McCormack, Charlie Priestley, Geoff Spring and Jack Titus. With two exceptions, all are Life Members of our Club and, in consequence, it must be obvious that loyalty to Tigerland would be of paramount importance in all their deliberations concerning the welfare of the Club.

As Chairman of Committees, Ray Dunn has again rendered invaluable service during the season. His suggestions and deliberations are based upon sound reasoning and are extremely helpful in ensuring that our Club is definitely in the forefront in football administration. As our legal adviser we owe him a tremendous debt of gratitude and we find it hard to visualise the difficulties that would be encountered without the benefit of his very capable services. For the sake of Tigerland we hope that Ray's interest in the Yellow and Black will never flag and that he will be with us for many years hence. Martin Bolger, as Minute Secretary, is quiet but outspoken if the occasion demands it. Is ever ready to assist in anything that would help the progress of the Tigers. Bill Pitt is Social Director and with his small group of helpers has worked unceasingly in promoting social events for the players, staff and officials. The harmony existing in the Club today can be attributed in no small measure to the various social activities conducted under Bill's direction. Jack Dyer, alias "Captain Blood", represents a tradition that brought Richmond to three premierships. Jack, in action on the field, won fame for Tigerland and his example plus his friendliness are an inspiration and an incentive to all players old or new. He has been a great help in our recruiting both local and country. Ron Garraway as Director of Recruiting has shown his capacity for organisation and has thoroughly explored all avenues in our various recruiting campaigns. With Ron at the helm we can be certain that Richmond will not lag in its recruiting efforts. In addition, Ron assesses all committee problems with a quick business alertness and is to be congratulated upon the manner in which he has carried out any duties allocated to him. Des Rowe, the remaining Vice-President, is now one of our Selectors and these duties coupled with his willingness to assist in Recruiting already provide a basis whereby his talents may be used to the best advantage.

This report would not be complete without a brief resume of our Committeemen. Charlie Callander and Richmond are synonymous, and wherever work is to be performed in Tigerland you will find Charlie ever ready to lend a hand. His conscientiousness and efficiency in handling the football equipment owned by the Club leaves nothing to be desired. His appointment as Steward to his fourth Carnival side indicates that his ability is fully recognised by other football administrators and we are proud of the honour conferred on Charlie by the Victorian Football League. Charlie Priestley, as Chairman of Selectors, and an ardent worker in various social activities, is to be commended on the manner in which he has performed his duties. He has given a vast amount of his leisure hours to the service of the Club and merits recognition because of these personal sacrifices. Basil McCormack, until his resignation, and Jack Titus were the other non-playing members of the Selection Committee. Besides their work of selection they helped in recruiting campaigns in the country. The two latest additions to our Committee were Geoff Spring and Al Boord. Both gentlemen are possessed of business acumen that can be utilised to advantage in furthering the interests of our Club. They are both decided acquisitions and have already shown their eagerness by assisting in the many varied activities operating in Tigerland.

PUBLIC RELATIONS OFFICER

Despite his many duties as President, Maurie Fleming continued his work as Public Relations Officer. In this sphere, Maurie has no equal and the numerous requests received for his services from other organisations are proof positive of his capacity and ability in that direction. Why does Maurie decline these offers simply to continue his association with Richmond? Why does he sacrifice most of his spare hours in the promotion of goodwill for our Club? The explanation is contained in his intensive loyalty to the Tigers and the sacrifice of personal advancement for his ideal of raising Richmond to the top rung of the V.F.L. ladder.

We offer to Maurie our very sincere thanks and also take this opportunity of expressing our appreciation to his wife, Ivy, for her help, assistance and co-operation which we realise must be required for Maurie to undertake this additional work.

COACH FOR 1958

Our popular Coach, Alan McDonald, guided the destinies of the Club on the field for the second year and in a season of fluctuating fortunes emphasised his uncanny quality of moulding immature and inexperienced footballers into a working football unit. Naturally it will take time in achieving his ultimate idea in the matter of team work, but with his ability to impart football knowledge it is certain that the Tigers must improve during 1959.

The players were always ready and willing to accept his help and advice. Alan has their entire confidence and co-operation. Your Committee are unanimous in their opinion that he has fully justified his appointment and look forward to his guidance for many years. His study of opposing teams during the past two years has been patient but painstaking and it is felt that this work will not be in vain.

Dick Harris again acted as Assistant Coach and did everything in his power in assisting Alan towards ensuring that players reached the degree of fitness necessary in a League footballer. Apart from their coaching duties both Dick and Alan helped materially in the social activities of the Club.

Many thanks Alan and Dick for another year of excellent service.

CAPTAIN AND VICE-CAPTAIN

Brownlow Medallist, Roy Wright, has achieved one of his ambitions, namely, his appointment as Captain of Richmond. His next is to lead the Tigers on to the Melbourne Cricket Ground in a final series. Let us hope, Roy, that this ambition will be realised in 1959. It would be the culmination of an outstanding football career and a fitting reward to an excellent clubman.

Ron Branton was appointed as Vice-Captain and during the absence of Roy with an injured leg he capably filled the role of skipper. In each of these games Ron McDonald acted as Vice-Captain.

Our congratulations to Ron McDonald on his selection in the Victorian Football League Carnival team and our sympathies to Roy Wright who was unable to play because of injury.

THE PLAYERS

In 1958 thirty-eight players participated in premiership matches with Ron Branton, Peter Morris and Col Saddington taking part in each of the eighteen games. Tigerland is renowned for the spirit of comradeship that exists between its players, staff and officials, and wishes to acknowledge its appreciation of the players for their co-operation during the year. Both on and off the field the players gave their best in upholding the prestige of the Club. We thank them for their loyalty and assistance in promoting the good name of the Richmond Football Club by medium of lectures and coaching of schools and junior clubs, by their appearances on Radio and Television and by their conduct generally in any of the social engagements of the Club. Your Committee has always fostered this spirit of harmony in all sections of Tigerland and has been assisted materially by the players' representatives, Roy Wright, Bob Dummett and Tom Hafey, who have always contributed constructive ideas at the General Committee meetings.

TRAINING ROOM STAFF

Invariably our training staff has very few changes from year to year and this season was no exception. Owing to the retirement of "Scotch" McDonald after many years of service it was necessary to appoint another member of the training staff. Keith Cleaver was appointed and joins a conscientious band of trainers in Jim Evans, Frank Hegarty, Ray Julier, Len McDonald, Bert Matthews and Stan Edward under the capable leadership of Ivan Booth. We express our appreciation of their efforts throughout the season and also include our thanks to Alby Keogh, Head Trainer of the Second Eighteen, and his capable assistants.

Apart from the actual duties performed by the trainers there are numerous other factors to be considered before a League team can be placed in the field. Our Property Steward, Charlie Callander, is our greatest help in this direction. He is invaluable with his knowledge of football equipment and saves the Club a considerable amount of money during the year by his careful and methodical handling of our gear.

Besides the training and the equipment of the team, there are many other spheres of activity in the Club rooms. It is essential that we have a band of voluntary workers who are prepared to assist in different capacities. We extend to the following gentlemen our sincere thanks for their help during the season: Barney Jackson (Assistant Property Steward), Alyn Moore (Boot Studder), Bill Valentine (Assistant Boot Studder), Bill Stanbrough (Timekeeper), Ken Pritchard and Ron Cleaver (Social Stewards), Jack Chandler and Roy Watkins (Door Stewards) and George den Besten (Transport Officer).

HONORARY DOCTOR AND PHYSIO-THERAPIST

Dr. P. L. Grogan again consented to act as Honorary Medico and we can be truly grateful that we have his services available whenever they are required by our players. It is a pleasure to be associated with the genial personality of Dr. Grogan and we value highly his constant attention to injured players. Many thanks, Doc., we appreciated greatly your presence in our rooms.

Working in conjunction with the Honorary Medico, John Stanley, our Physio-Therapist, completes a fine team for the provision of attention to the injured players. We wonder how these professional men can possibly spare the time for attending to the incessant demands made by a football club. All we can offer in return in our sincere thanks for their efficiency in a most important job.

BEST AND FAIREST

Adjudged on the votes of our non-playing Selectors, the award for this year meets with the unqualified approval of every Richmond supporter. Congratulations to Dave Cuzens upon a well merited success. His play throughout the year was an object lesson to young players and was characterised by remarkable consistency. His dogged determination and superb judgment were features of his play that gained him this coveted award.

THE J. D. LANGDON TROPHY

This trophy is presented annually to the Best and Fairest in the Second Eighteen. For 1958 the recipient of the award was Roger Dean. Roger is a very young player and with natural improvement that may be anticipated, he should be a League star in 1959. Congratulations Roger on your success.

THE J. J. SMITH MEMORIAL TROPHY

The calibre of the players constituting the Third Eighteen indicated that the Best and Fairest award would be an outstanding player. These indications were fulfilled when Graham Gahan was successful. Congratulations Graham and best wishes for continued progress.

BILL COSGROVE MEMORIAL TROPHY

Donated annually by our Patron, Harry Dyke, this trophy is awarded to the best first-year player and is usually won by a very good footballer. This year provided no exception and Fred Swift gains the trophy by his consistent play. It is expected that Fred will be one of the stars of the League next season.

LIFE MEMBERS FOR 1958

Alan Cooke has completed ten years playing service with the Club. During that time he has given yeoman service in the field and has been recognised as one of our best clubmen. He is ever ready to help in any activities conducted at Tigerland.

Bill Pitt, our Social Director, has rendered outstanding meritorious service to the Tigers. He has never spared himself in his efforts to foster good fellowship at Richmond per medium of organising social activities.

Your Committee recommends the appointment of Alan Cooke and Bill Pitt as Life Members.

FIVE-YEAR PLAYERS

Bob Dummett and Frank Dunin complete their fifth year of playing service and receive our congratulations upon attaining that milestone in their football career. We look forward to another five years from these players and feel that their experience will be turned to good account in assisting Richmond to a higher position on the premiership ladder.

RICHMOND CRICKET CLUB

It is our pleasure extending congratulations to the Cricket Club on attaining a place in the Final Four and reaching the position of runners-up for the Premiership. May its success continue in the current season. We express the appreciation of the Football Club for the assistance and co-operation of the cricketers throughout the year and particularly thank the executive officers, Jim Cook (President), Perce Maybury (Secretary), and Noel Baragwanath (Treasurer) for their help and understanding in the many problems arising during the season. Dave Goodson again represented his Club on the football committee. His contribution to discussions are fully appreciated and helped in determining matters of policy between the two clubs.

With the rise of the Cricket Club from the doldrums, we hope that we can emulate its success in 1959.

RICHMOND SECOND EIGHTEEN

Hampered by injuries and the necessity of providing repeated replacements for the Senior Eighteen, the Cubs had a disappointing year. Constant changing of the team brought many inconsistent performances. Brilliant victories against the ultimate premiers, Hawthorn, and other sides in the Final Four were offset by lethargic and listless displays against teams lower on the list.

The organisation and administration of the Cubs reached its usual high standard and congratulations are extended to Bob Knapp (President), Jim Joyce (Secretary), Frank Keon (Treasurer), and Mel Wishart (Social Secretary) on the capable manner in which the affairs of the team were handled.

Dick Harris again occupied the position of Coach and fully justified his re-appointment.

RICHMOND THIRD EIGHTEEN

Congratulations lads upon winning the Tigers' first Third Eighteen Premiership. The policy of the General Committee in encouraging local juniors has borne fruit and it would not require any great degree of courage in predicting that five or six lads from this Eighteen will finally find their way to Senior ranks during the next two years.

We extend our congratulations to Bill Wilson (Coach) and Bert Haswell (Manager) in maintaining the Eighteen as an efficient unit both on and off the field. Without doubt their guidance is a most important factor in the development of potential League players. Many thanks Bill and Bert.

RICHMOND FOURTH EIGHTEEN

Under the capable handling of Alan Watson the Fourth Eighteen occupied a place in the Final Four for the sixth successive year. They were defeated in the Semi-Final by the ultimate premiers. This team may be determined the kindergarten of Tigerland and we appreciate the capabilities of Alan Watson and his assistants in developing this section of our nursery.

A closer knit policy of co-operation with Junior District Clubs has been followed throughout the season and further extensions have been planned for next year. Conferences with Club Executives will be held at regular intervals and matters of mutual interest will be discussed. Lectures and coaching by Senior players will be a feature and will be supplemented by financial assistance and medical treatment for injured players.

For 1958 our thanks are extended to Alan McDonald, Peter Morris, Tista de Lorenzo, Ron McDonald, Tom Hafey, Ted Langridge, Col Saddington, and Bill Tymms in carrying out the policy of the Club in the matter of lecturing and coaching.

Congratulations to the following clubs: Oakleigh District on winning two premierships; Burnley, a premiership; St. Ignatius' Y.C.W. and Richmond Scouts, as runners-up, and Richmond District, on reaching the final four.

RECRUITING

Under the capable direction of Ron Garraway, the Recruiting Committee extensively covered the many reports upon recruits in country districts. It must be admitted that closer attention and emphasis upon district recruiting has been the main concern of the Committee. That this concentration has been justified has already been exemplified by the success of the Third Eighteen. Nevertheless, no opportunity has been neglected in seeking young players from country districts. Several promising recruits have already signed for the Tigers and the appearance of youngsters like Michael Paterson (Mirboo North), Kevin Maple (Castlemaine), Barry Kilpatrick (Mooroopna) and Edo Benetti and Peter Loughran (Wonthaggi) is eagerly awaited.

Sincere thanks are offered to Ron and his sub-committee for a very good year's work.

PLAYERS' PROVIDENT FUND

By maintaining a payment of £4 per match to each player into the Provident Fund, the Committee has ensured that this means of incentive has been firmly established as a medium of rewarding footballers for their efforts.

In addition to the Players' Provident Fund, we have established a Provident Fund for the Coach and the Training Room Staff. It is a recognition of their work for the advancement of the Club and it is felt that supporters will approve and endorse this method of appreciating their services.

DONORS TO CLUB FUNDS

It is pleasing to record an improvement in donations for the past year. This increase is accepted as proof of the loyalty that actuates Donors to this Club. We thank all these supporters and assure them that their assistance is highly esteemed. It is hoped that better performances in 1959 will be some repayment for their loyalty and generosity.

DONORS OF TROPHIES TO PLAYERS

During the year players receive donations and trophies from generous supporters and on their behalf it is desired to thank donors for their liberality and thoughtfulness in recognising prowess on the field.

SOCIAL COMMITTEE REPORT

With Bill Pitt as Director and ably assisted by Charlie Priestley and Charlie Callander, the Social Committee completed another year of valuable service. The promotion of harmony is of paramount importance in a club and our social activities provide many

W. TYMMS, Secretary

The President and Members, Richmond Football Club, Ladies and Gentlemen,

I report that I have examined the Accounts and Transactions of your Club for the year ended 15th October, 1958. Your Committee has certified by minute that at balance date the Club had no liabilities other than those shown in the above Balance Sheet. Social Committee records have not been subject to audit and amounts received, disbursed, and held have not been included in the above Balance Sheet or taken to account in supporting Revenue Accounts.

I report subject to the above that in my opinion, the above Balance Sheet and supporting Revenue Account are properly drawn up and correctly set forth the true position of the Richmond Football Club at the 15th day of October, 1958, according to the information and explanations afforded me and as shown by the books and records of the Club.

18th November, 1958.

opportunities for the encouragement of that friendly atmosphere so essential to success and progress. Players, staff and officials, with their wives and girl friends, mix in happy surroundings and in congenial company. The resultant friendships cannot fail to bind the Club as a closer working unit for the benefit of Tigerland.

Our annual visit to the Sergeants' Mess, R.A.A.F., Laverton, heralded the social activities for the year. A cricket match in which the Tigers were victorious was interspersed with a picnic lunch and refreshments and followed by tea and entertainment provided by the R.A.A.F. We thank the lads at the Mess for their gracious hospitality and the facilities made available for our enjoyment. Later in the year this welcome was repaid in a small measure by a visit of the R.A.A.F. to the Richmond Club Pavilion. Various competitions of darts, quoits, etc., were conducted and musical items were rendered by prospective t.v. stars. It was esteemed an honour and a privilege in entertaining a grand bunch of sports.

The ever-popular cricket match against our cricketing confreres attracted the usual big crowd of supporters, players, staff and officials to the annual venue at Seaford. Without doubt this very enjoyable outing improves and maintains the harmonious relationship existing between our two Tiger Clubs. On this occasion both the Cricketers and Footballers claimed victory in the cricket match—the official result was a draw and the retention of the ashes by the Cricketers. During the afternoon the sunshine attracted many of the party to the bathing facilities at the beach, while tennis enthusiasts utilised the courts inside the football ground. As usual, races were conducted for the players, ladies and children, while refreshments and ice creams were provided. Later in the season our annual get-together with the Cricket Club was very well attended and a contributing medium of bringing players of the two Clubs into closer contact.

A big crowd of supporters attended Sports Parade Night at the Melbourne Town Hall. Eight hundred tickets were distributed to pupils at the Richmond District Schools and, in consequence, there was a very good representation of younger folk. Kia-Ora Products sponsored an excellent entertainment which was ably compered by our good friend, Tony Charlton.

To help in the raising of funds for Prince Henry's Hospital and the Anti Cancer Appeal, pleasant Sunday mornings were conducted at the Club rooms. Old friends in Ambrose and Bill Palmer helped considerably by organising a series of wrestling and boxing exhibitions for the pleasure of the patrons. Tom Campbell, the Victorian Banjo Club, and Stan Stafford furnished many enjoyable musical items. As a result of these efforts, substantial donations were forwarded to the charities concerned. Our grateful thanks are extended to the good folk, who, by their efforts, made these donations possible.

The Annual Ball was held at Zeigfeld Palais, Glenferrie, on July 11 and thanks to the organisation and efforts of Charlie Priestley, the night was thoroughly enjoyed by the large crowd in attendance. We were honoured by the presence of players and officials of the South Australian Carnival team. An excellent supper, an attractive floor show and grand singing by Dorothy Baker added to the enjoyment of the evening.

During the season regular dances were held at the Pavilion and were well patronised by players, staff and officials. We wish to express appreciation to Ray Dunn, Ron Garraway, Maurie Fleming, Bill Pitt and Charlie Priestley who acted as hosts on various occasions at these dances.

In August it was decided that a young supporters' night be held in the Football Pavilion. Admission was obtained by the wearing of Yellow and Black guernseys, berets, ribbons, etc. Fears of a poor attendance were soon allayed when boys and girls turned up in hundreds. The final total reached five hundred. Entertainment was provided by Ron Blaskett and Gerry Gee and Bernard the Magician, while pies, lollies and refreshments were distributed.

The first function in the summer itinerary was a golf day at Flinders. Golfers and their adherents attended in force. After completing eighteen holes, many happy hours were spent at an open air barbecue outside the course. Trophies were won by Mrs. Des Rowe, Charlie Flannagan and Bill Tymms.

APPRECIATION

In view of the increasing number of activities connected with the organisation and administration of a League football team, it is obvious that the Club must rely upon the good graces and assistance of a growing band of helpers. Their help is tendered by medium of advice, co-operation, donations or financial aid and to these grand people we offer our grateful appreciation. In this brief report we may inadvertently omit acknowledgment to some persons whose actions helped the Club. In that event this opportunity is taken of expressing our humble apologies for the omission and thanks for their help throughout the year.

On behalf of the Committee, players, staff and members, appreciation is extended to the following:—

The officials and staff of the V.F.L. for their help, advice, courtesy and co-operation during 1958.

The Press and their sporting writers for the publicity afforded our Club by publishing information concerning players, training notes and items of interest from Tigerland. In addition, the coverage of premiership matches by reports and photographs was extensive and interesting. In particular we thank Alf Brown and Bob Buchanan ("Herald"), Kevin Hogan, Rex Pullen and George Bugden ("Sun"), Percy Beames and Trevor Davis ("Age"), Peter Eye and Dave Anderson ("Sporting Globe") and Bill Cathie ("Football Record").

Bill Richards and Al Boord, of Amalgamated Wireless, for the provision of a telephonic system at the ground.

Bill Stretton, Arthur Dummert, and Bob Barry for their support and trophies donated to players.

Nick Hosking, Ron Maher and George Maybury for the care and attention in keeping the ground in good order and condition.

Radio and television personalities for their broadcasts, comments and televising of matches in which the Club was engaged.

Coles and Garrard for providing an advertisement on Club Membership Tickets.

The medical and nursing staff of Prince Henry's Hospital for their unremitting care and attention of injured players. Our special thanks are tendered to Dr. L. Hudson (Medical Superintendent) for courteous assistance at all times.

Noel and John O'Brien for their donation of boxes of chocolates as trophies for the players.

The late Alec Holzer for his donation of shirts as trophies for the players.

Peter Read for his generosity and help to the Club.

The sponsors of the various radio sessions and broadcasts in Pelaco, Ampol, Aspro, Crestknit, Federal Hotels, London Stores and Fred Hesse and their provision of trophies and awards for players.

Roger David for donation of sports trousers.

Les Bryant, of the Commonwealth Employment Service, for his assistance in the placement of players in employment.

Richmond News and its representative, Michael Lucy, for extensive reports of all matches and other matters of Club interest.

Mick Quadara for his donation of pineapples for all matches played by First and Second Eighteens.

Messrs. Charlie Phipps, Percy Langdon, Con Manley, Laurie Sleith and Bary Hender for their help as ticket sellers during the season.

Ron Garraway and Jack Dyer for their assistance in providing board and accommodation for recruits.

CONGRATULATIONS

On behalf of the Tigers our congratulations are offered to the following:—

Collingwood Football Club in winning the Premiership against stern opposition. Congratulations also to Phonse Kyne (Coach), Frank Tuck (Captain), and Murray Weideman (Acting Captain). Melbourne Football Club upon a great season in reaching the Grand Final. North Melbourne and Fitzroy Football Clubs for marked improvement in reaching the Final Four.

Neil Roberts upon a well merited success in winning the Brownlow Medal.

Hawthorn Football Club in winning the Second Eighteen Penant—the first in the history of the Club.

Ron McDonald upon his selection in the Victorian Carnival team.

Roy Wright, Peter Morris, Bob Dummett, Stan Morcom, Colin Holt and Doug. Reynolds upon additions to their family.

Vic. Naismith on joining the ranks of the benedicts.

St. Kilda Football Club on winning the Night Football Premiership.

LAUNCESTON AND SHEPPARTON TRIP

Under the management of Bill Tymms a party of 47 officials and players travelled by plane to Launceston on Saturday morning, October 4, and returned the following Monday night. Although a short trip, it was none the less enjoyable. During the stay we were the guests of the East Launceston Club who arranged a very attractive itinerary for the members of the party. On Saturday afternoon a match was played against St. Kilda and the Club took the opportunity of assessing the possibilities of several promising recruits who will be with the Tigers next season. As a result Michael Patterson from Mirboo North showed outstanding form and will be a decided acquisition to our ranks.

Following the match we were entertained at a cabaret dinner by two old players in Don Fraser and Geoff Paterson. We express appreciation to these grand sports for an evening staged with every consideration for our entertainment, comfort and enjoyment. On Sunday afternoon we journeyed by cars provided by the members of the East Launceston Club to a delightful rendezvous—Lavender Farm. This drive through the orchard country interspersed with typical mountain scenery furnished the party with many delightful vistas of Northern Tasmania. Many thanks to our hosts.

On Monday the party visited the Gorge, power station and various points of interest around Launceston and a tired but happy group journeyed to the airport for the return trip to Melbourne.

The following Saturday a party of sixty travelled by diesel car to Shepparton and a match was played against Hawthorn under electric lights. The game was played under deplorable conditions with the ground ankle deep in mud. A bright display resulted in a victory for Hawthorn in the last kick of the day.

OBITUARY

With regret we record the death of the following identities of the Club:—

JACK ANDERSON

BILL NUTT

ALEC HOLZER

Long may they live in our memories and to their families and relatives, and to other members and supporters who suffered bereavement during the past year we extend our deepest sympathy.

SECRETARY'S APPRECIATION

In submitting the Seventy-Fourth Annual Report and Balance Sheet I realise that supporters must feel a little disappointed at the display of the team throughout the season. However, a review of the position shows that we can expect an upward trend in 1959. Concentration on the recruiting of youthful players from our local district and the country has paid dividends by the establishment of the strongest Third Eighteen in the League. Invariably this method of recruiting is followed by subsequent progress on the part of the Senior team. The influx of these young Tigers will undoubtedly produce that desired effect and we can look forward with optimism to a better year in 1959. The inauguration of a Summer School of Training for Senior players will ensure their fitness and improve their physique. Distinct improvement will be apparent next season.

I take this opportunity of expressing my personal appreciation of the help and consideration given by our President and thank Maurie for his co-operation during the year. I could not wish for more loyal support than that tendered by the Committee, staff, and players, and I thank them collectively for their efforts during the year. I hope that members will accord them that same appreciation by giving their unqualified support to the Tigers throughout the coming season.

In conclusion I would respectfully urge supporters to purchase membership tickets early in 1959 and so provide the Club with that financial backing so essential to success.

Bill Tymms, Secretary.

PRESIDENT'S ADDENDUM

As this very comprehensive report has shown, 1958 was a season of mixed fortunes for the Tigers. After winning the first three games, the Committee felt we were at last on the way to a position in the Final Four, but injuries took their toll and we had the misfortune to strike a mid-season slump as a result.

Some excellent young players won their way into the team, and we are confident they will play a big part in the fortunes of the Tigers in the years ahead. The success of our 3rd XVIII. should also give the Club a number of talented lads, and the Committee has instituted a Summer School to enable these players to further their football under skilled P.T. teachers and our own Coaches with the help of former players associated with the Club.

A number of our Senior footballers are also attending the ground twice a week for a 13-week period doing a special course of fitness and speed in preparation for the 1959 season.

Modern football demands improved methods, and we are hopeful that these new schemes will improve our standard of play and enable the Tigers to regain that prominent place in League football it held between the early twenties and mid-forties.

I desire to pay a special tribute to our Secretary, Mr. Bill Tymms, for his application to his numerous duties. Bill has now completed his third year with the Club, and has won the respect of his many associates in football in Melbourne, but particularly in the country where he is held in high esteem by many officials. His close association with Mr. Ron Garraway, Chairman of Recruiting, in the search for players has proved of great benefit in recent years, particularly in the Gippsland area where he has made many friends for our Club. This activity has gained us a number of talented recruits for 1959, and we are confident that one, Michael Patterson, will make senior football next season. Thank you, Bill, for your ready co-operation with me in this, my first year as President.

My appreciation to Alan McDonald, our Coach, for his splendid work in handling the players at training and his advice to so many young players now at Richmond. Alan's co-operation with Charlie Priestley and his Selection Committee did much to build up a grand team spirit. In this phase, Dick Harris, Bill Wilson and Alan Watson greatly assisted, too, and we offer them all our thanks.

The Committee again proved to be a happy and efficient body, working at all times to improve the position of the Tigers on and off the field. It was pleasing to have our former President, Mr. Harry Dyke, associated still with us as our Patron, whilst Mr. Bill Quinn (Treasurer) again showed his ability by finishing the year with a nice credit balance for the Club. I must pay a special compliment to Mr. Ray Dunn (Chairman of Committee) for his assistance throughout the season. Ray is one of the greatest Committeemen ever at Richmond, and his advice and help to the players and staff has won him the esteem of all.

Our champion player and present Captain, Roy Wright, and his able deputy Ron Branton, receive our thanks for their loyalty and help to the Tigers, whilst Dave Cuzens, who won the Best and Fairest Trophy, and Fred Swift, Best First-Year Player, are sincerely congratulated.

Social Secretary Mr. Bill Pitt and 10-year-player, Alan Cooke, will receive Life Membership Certificates at the Annual Meeting for outstanding services to Richmond. Both merit our warm and sincere thanks.

To the gentlemen and business firms who are donors to our funds, and to the Press, Radio and T.V. stations, we extend our appreciation for the help given us in 1958.

Thanks are also offered Mr. Bob Knapp, Mr. Jim Joyce and the Committee of the Cubs; Bert Haswell, talented coach Bill Wilson and the men associated with the 3rd XVIII.; to Alan Watson and his helpers of the 4th XVIII., and to our very fine training room staff led by Messrs. Irvine Booth, Alby Keyhoe and Charlie Callander.

To all who have worked for the Tigers in the past and to our very loyal members, I say "Thank you". I do hope that 1959 will see Richmond back at the top of the V.F.L. premiership ladder.

Maurie Fleming, President.
